

After many false dawns, VW bosses have confirmed their Microbus really is to return reinvented for the 21st century - as a 'green' electric vehicle. The new high-tech, but retro-styled, eight-seater battery-powered version - working title ID Buzz - will feature variable seating, Wi-Fi and semi-autonomous driving. It even comes with a mini Buddha on the dashboard.

Flipkart transforming lives of businessmen in Gujarat

New Delhi, As digital commerce in India grows by leaps and bounds, offline retailers across the country have increasingly recognised the potential of selling online and have made the switch. Local sellers in Ahmedabad too are not far behind this revolution.

Over the last decade, Flipkart has been constantly working with sellers from every nook and corner of the country to enable and empower them to take their regional selection to buyers beyond their local areas. Ahmedabad, in particular, has been one of the key and fastest growing markets for Flipkart. In a recent press meet, Flipkart had said that Gujarat forms one of the biggest and fastest growing markets in Western India for Flipkart, with around 50 lakh customers. Online sellers from Ahmedabad who sell on Flipkart's platform have played a significant role in garnering interest and demand from customers across India for local produce such as intricate handlooms and exquisite handicrafts.

This year, as a part of Flipkart's Big 10 celebrations to commemorate a decade of operations in the country, the marketplace has dedicated August as the 'Month of Partners' to recognise and thank all partners and sellers for their unending support in making Flipkart what it is today.

One such seller is Himanshu owner of Shreeji Marketing. He was informed by his customers that the same products he sells in his store are available for cheaper on Flipkart. When he realised this, he says, "At that moment, I thought why can't I sell online? I went online and found out what are the terms and conditions of selling on Flipkart."

Himanshu has had a very successful experience with Flipkart and commenting on the partnership he mentioned, "Flipkart is pioneer in business.

President speaks for himself, says Tillerson

Washington, US Secretary of State Rex Tillerson said that Donald Trump "speaks for himself" when asked whether the President's response to the violence in Charlottesville, Virginia, raised questions about his values, the media reported.

Tillerson said that the US was committed to freedom and "equal treatment of people the world over."

"I don't believe anyone doubts the American people's values."

And when asked about the President's values, Tillerson said: "The President speaks for himself."

Trump was widely criticised for his response to the racially motivated violence in Charlottesville on August 12 in which he said "both sides" - write supremacists and those protesting them - were responsible for the clashes that left one woman dead and over 100 injured.

"You had a group on one side that was bad and you had a group on the other side that was also very violent," Trump said.

Both sides included "very bad people", the President added, saying those gathered for the far-right rally, ostensibly to protest the removal of a statue of Confederate General Robert E. Lee, included many "fine people."

Duterte orders police to kill 'all who resist arrest'

Manila, Philippines President Rodrigo Duterte on Monday ordered the police to kill those who violently resist arrest, amid a rising number of deaths linked to his government's deadly war on drugs.

"Your duty requires you to overcome the resistance of the person you are arresting. If he resists, and it is a violent one, you are free to kill the idiot. That is my order to you," Duterte said during a speech at a ceremony marking National Heroes Day at the Libingan ng Mga Bayani Cemetery in Manila.

At least 70 people died in four days earlier this month, adding to the thousands who have been killed since Duterte launched a campaign against the illegal drugs trade upon taking office last June.

Kian Loyd Delos Santos was among those killed during a police operation on August 16.

His death has triggered widespread public protests against the violent police crackdown.

The officers involved have been suspended and prosecutors are planning to charge them with murder. The officers contend that Delos Santos was shot while resisting arrest and attempting to escape. Duterte is scheduled to meet with the victim's parents, who say their son never took or sold drugs, later on Monday. The crackdown on illegal narcotics has led to the deaths of more than 7,000 people of whom 3,451 were killed in police operations, while 96,703 people were arrested, according to official data.
