Earlier, he was the additional chief secretary in the revenue department. Prior to taking the latest charge, he was additional chief secretary in Home department.

Meanwhile, the additional charge of ACS Home has been handed over to Dr Rajiv Kumar Gupta who is ACS Industries and Mines Department.

charge, Pankaj Kumar expressed confidence that his experience would help Gujarat make further progress. Mukim, now retired, wished Kumar well on his new assignment and thanked the officers and staff

GIFT City first in India to get Green Cities Platinum certification from IGBC

Gandhinagar: India's only operational smart city and International Financial Services Centre (IFSC), GIFT City has recently been awarded the Green Cities 'Platinum' Certification for 'Green Master planning & design and Implementation of GIFT City's phase I development' by CII's Indian Green Building Council (IGBC). GIFT City is India's first Greenfield Smart City to achieve the IGBC Green Cities Platinum rating. Several initiatives adopted in the project, including integrated land use, compact city development, 35% public green and open spaces, sustainable housing, transit oriented development with BRTS, Metro rail connectivity, 100% road network with streetscape and 100% green testimony to the city's cutting-edge infrastructure, design and project implementation which will attract global companies to set up their base in GIFT City." Congratulating the GIFT team, Suresh Chairman, IGBC, said, "Green rating systems of IGBC are designed to address national priorities and are enabling projects in meeting the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals. We are confident that GIFT City would emerge as a model green & smart city in the country."

Sameer Sinha, Chair, IGBC Ahmedabad chapter, added, "Gujarat is one of the leading states in the country that has embraced green principles. As of today, the state has more than 350 registered green building projects."

Nutrition Park near Statue of Unity will be role model for nation: Smriti Irani

Gandhinagar: Union Minister of Women and Child Development Smriti Irani was all praises for the nutrition park developed near the Statue of Unity in Kevadia.

Along with other ministers and dignitaries, Irani planted saplings at the nutrition park. On the occasion, she said that the park would be a role model and example for the rest of the country to follow, thus promoting efforts for women and child nutrition. "Around 151 nutritional and health-building plants are being grown in the nutrition park. Chairperson of National Commission of Women Rekha Sharma and chairperson of National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) Priyank Kamungu were also present.

Elaborating on the park, deputy forest conservator, Kevadia, P.J Pandya said, "We have fruit trees like drumsticks, kesudo, guava, custard apple, mango etc besides other nutrition-giving and medicinal plants in the forest." Smriti Irani visited the Statue of Unity on Tuesday and paid tribute at the statue of Sardar Patel.

"Statue of Unity is not just a memorial. It is the source of inspiration for the world's youngest democracy. It symbolizes 'excellence in unity' in the real sense," she said. She also visited "FM 90 Radio Unity, a community radio station recently launched and named after the 'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav'.

Stamp duty increases 148% during April to July this year in Gujarat

GANDHINAGAR: Even as Covid-19 cases in the state are hovering at a bare minimum for the past few weeks, economic activity is registering an impressive growth. The state government's income from various sources has increased by 36% in the period from April to July this year, as compared to the same period last year. Significantly, compared to the corresponding period last year (2020), the revenue from stamp duty and property registration has spiked 148% in the period from April to July this year, reflecting a huge spurt in real estate transactions since April. In the month of July, 2020, the income from stamp duty & registration fees was Rs 588 crore. In July this year, the income from stamp duty and registration touched the Rs 968 crore mark. Considering the April to July period, the revenue from stamp duty and registration in 2020 was Rs 1,234 crore. This year, the income from stamp duty and registration between April and July stands at Rs 3,061 crore. Such impressive has been the stamp duty and registration revenue that the state government has earned 34% of its annual budgetary target of Rs 8,700 crore in the first four months of the financial year. According to official figures of the state government, the number of property documents registered in the first four months of 2020-21 were 1.94 lakh, which increased to 4.07 lakh in the first four months of 2021-22, reflecting a whopping 110% jump in total number of registered sale deeds in the state. However, the state's major source of income - Goods & Service Tax (GST) income has grown by only 6% in the first four months of the ongoing fiscal year as compared to the same period last year. Revenue from stamp duty and registration grew by 148% in the first four months of the present fiscal year as compared to the same period last year. Motor vehicles tax has registered a growth of 110% in the first four months of the financial year as compared to the corresponding period last year. VAT (value added tax) on petroleum products showed a 81% jump in revenue in the first four months of the ongoing financial year as compared to the corresponding period last year.

Certificates to aid in insurance claims

Rajkot: The state forest department has assured that the certificate issued to the registered snake rescuers will suffice for claiming insurance in the event of any mishap during the dangerous operations. The department had issued a guideline on March 30 forbidding people from rescuing snakes without proper training and its formal recognition.
